While we are waiting, big shout out to Lori and Kathy P. for the work everyone did at Adams 12 to open schools safely. Amazing demonstration of what can be accomplished when the local board, education association, and superintendent work together!!

From Lori Goldstein to Everyone: 03:13 PM
thanks Karla!

I'm not sure if it's just my computer, but I'm getting feedback and am having a hard time hearing Omar.

From Kathy Plomer to Everyone: 03:43 PM
Do you have a certain training you recommend?

From Lisa Escarcega to Everyone: 04:15 PM Safety only - not for discipline. ACLU has good model board policy on this privatization is designed to NOT have long asking relationships. short term educators. TFA. relay .

we need a whole new way of looking at education. start with a clean slate as Jane said. no Ken has come with a new way to deliver education
no leadership at any level so far

I would like to second Arturo's comment on focusing on getting rid of standardized testing. It is one thing everyone could participate in. The timing is great, because of the times. Wish schools so in flux the idea of rating schools based on test scores is ridiculous. The idea of evaluating teachers based on student test scores is beyond ridiculous. Using school test scores for closing schools is criminal. It's a great time to focus on this issue.
